Commissions are charged only on specific WM Markets account types that offer raw spread trading on forex pairs.

Because these spreads start from as low as 0.0 pips, WM Markets applies a small, transparent commission specifically on Forex trading only, while keeping all other asset classes completely commission free.

On the Zero Account, the commission is $8 per round lot on Forex CFDs, while the VIP Zero Account offers a reduced rate of $5 per round lot on Forex CFDs. All other asset classes across both accounts remain completely commission free, and our Prime and Cent accounts carry no commissions at all.
